HOA Board Member Certification 720 Florida Statute

Effective July 1, 2013, within 90 days of being elected or appointed to the board all HOA board members must submit a certificate of having satisfactorily completed the educational curriculum administered by the DPBR approved education provider or certify in writing to the secretary of the board that he or she has read the association's declaration of covenants, articles of incorporation, bylaws, and current written rules and policies and will work to uphold the documents and policies to the best of his or her abilities.

Failure to do either of these means that the director is suspended from service on the board until he or she complies. The board may temporarily fill the vacancy during the period of suspension. Associations must maintain the certificates for five years after the election.
