

Provider # 0005095

Course # 9627572

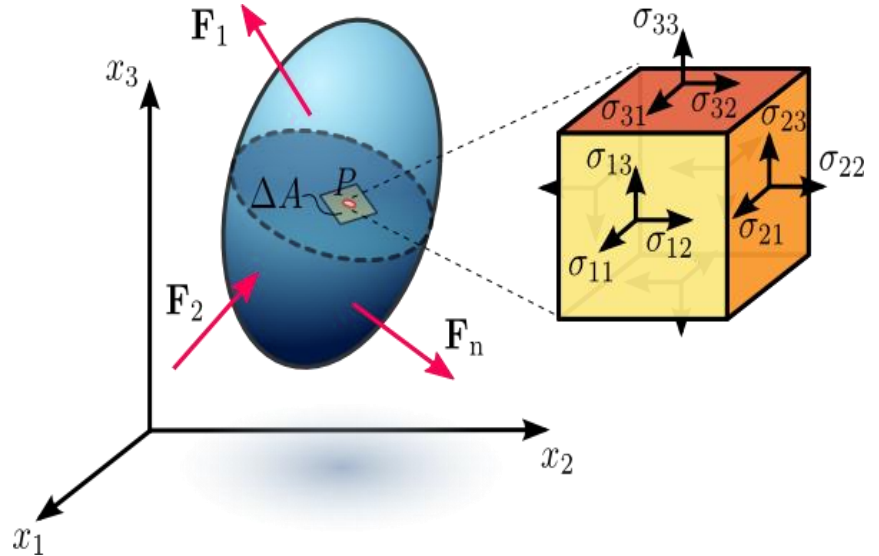

Certified for 1 CEU
In HR / ELE

Instructors:
Michael G. Zawaki
Lorraine Megdanis

Upon Completion
Managers Will:

1. Gain a deeper understanding of your roles and responsibilities as a Manager
2. Improve communication to effectively set expectations for yourself and your staff
3. Adapt your leadership style to meet the needs of individual team members
4. Communicate organizational goals that get results
5. Apply delegation strategies to increase productivity and motivation
6. Use effective coaching techniques to maximize your team's performance
7. Recognize what effective communication really is
8. Identify the challenges and practices when communicating

The Continuum

How do I get it done with efficiency, while staying motivated, with enough time and still keep my sanity?

Overview:

The Continuum was designed for all Community Association Managers to help develop and practice their leadership skills, to build an executive leadership style that creates trust, sets a clear vision and guides your entire team toward greater performance.

General Overview

- Gain insights into the key executive leadership skills and techniques for create a winning strategy
- Learn what real “coaching” consists of and how to build an extraordinary team that works together to deliver results
- Develop heightened “emotional intelligence” for greater professional achievement and satisfaction
- Identify the characteristics of effective leadership and the most common saboteur
- Develop a leadership style that adapts to the person and situation